

The Four Seasons Hotel lies on a sandy beach east of Limassol, halfway between the airports of Larnaca and Pafos, and only a few minute drive from the city centre. The pinnacle of luxury and elegance combines impeccable facilities with world class service.

This five-star luxury hotel, entrance lobby and reception has a smart contemporary feel, whilst maintaining its air of casual elegance to emphasize the hotel's welcome! The outdoor pool area looks spectacular and the indoor pool has been redesigned with enhanced finishes to match the standards of the new gymnasium and fitness studio.

The 302 spacious and bright guest rooms now offer the best of traditional comfort with contemporary style and modern smart room technology designed to further enhance guests' stay. The practical use of space and technology supported by the friendly and attentive staff, will ensure that staying at the Four Seasons Hotel in Limassol is more enjoyable than ever.

The deluxe Shiseido Spa and flexibility of the conference rooms contribute to bring this hotel to the forefront of the top range conference hotels in Limassol, also highly recommended for incentives and VIP groups.

