

ANNABELLE

Under the soulful care of the Michaelides family since the 1985, Annabelle epitomises the warmth of Cyprus' people, the beauty of its nature, and its hands-on culture of care and conscientiousness. An oasis set within six acres of lush gardens on Pafos seafront. Cool, peaceful interiors, understated design and warm, caring service combined with five-star luxury, create a distinct atmosphere of unpretentious elegance.

From balcony views of shimmering azure seascapes to the rich tones of handcrafted furniture, private pools to connecting sanctuaries; discover all 244 rooms for all sorts of retreats.

Four restaurants and five bars showcase seasonal produce, delicate local wines and traditional Cypriot charm, with live music almost every night. Glittering waterfalls reflect the tantalizing blue of the Mediterranean sea as a perfect background for exclusive dinners outdoors.
