

Casale Panayiotis is nestled in a scenic village at the Troodos mountains. A tranquil retreat where comfort and elegance meet rural charm, with tastefully restored guest rooms and suites, once traditional village homes and a cuisine based on mouth-watering Cypriot dishes locally sourced, as well as a state of the art wellness Spa amidst tranquil surroundings.

The retreat's 41 luxurious rooms and suites are located in traditional houses across Kalopanayiotis village, each lovingly restored to retain its original character and charm.

Experience the daily village life, wander through nature trails, visit Byzantine churches, savour the local cuisine, taste local wine and mingle with the villagers.

The historic spa village of Kalopanayiotis has for centuries attracted visitors to its healing sulphur springs. Join this ancient tradition, reborn in sumptuous surroundings.

