

A unique beachfront location at the edge of a nature reserve, facing the temple of Poseidon, one of the most famous archaeological sites in Europe and the second most important ancient temple in Attica. Here is the onset of the Aegean Sea, with its crystal clear and calm waters, ideal for children. A swim towards the cape or the opposite island, is unbeatable and so refreshing.

Built along the cosmopolitan coastline of Athens Riviera, accessible by airplane via “Eleftherios Venizelos” International Airport of Athens and by ferry via Lavrio Harbour, 67 km from Athens and the Acropolis as well as 4,7 km from the Temple of Poseidon.

Arranged amphitheatrically, 150 terracotta-coloured bungalows blend into the unspoiled landscape. Inside, these singular guest rooms are decorated in a palette inspired by the glorious setting.

Exclusive villas at this privileged location are the most elegant residences in southern Europe. Perfect hideaways with private pools and unique views to the sea & temple of Poseidon.

Guests will have the chance to savour the chef’s fusion of international and Greek cuisine with a selection of five fine restaurants occupying a unique setting with dramatic views of the sea and the Temple of Poseidon.

