

PHĀEA

Phāea Blue is an intimate luxury resort set on a hillside overlooking the Gulf of Elounda and the historic island of Spinalonga. Surrounded by olive groves and traditional Cretan landscapes, the property blends contemporary elegance with authentic island character, offering a tranquil retreat that celebrates local culture, craftsmanship, and gastronomy. The resort features a collection of beautifully designed rooms, suites, and bungalows, many with private pools and terraces that frame panoramic sea views.

Dining is inspired by the rich culinary heritage of Crete, with refined restaurants and bars showcasing seasonal ingredients, local producers, and modern interpretations of traditional Mediterranean cuisine. Guests can also enjoy a peaceful private beach, curated cultural experiences, wellness treatments, and immersive activities that highlight the region's traditions and natural beauty.

For small meetings, incentives, and exclusive events, the resort offers a selection of elegant indoor and outdoor venues. The Votsalo Restaurant can host up to 120 guests for seated dinners, while the scenic Blue Door Taverna accommodates around 40 guests seated, creating charming settings for private dinners and authentic Cretan celebrations. Additional terraces and beachfront spaces are ideal for cocktail receptions of up to 150 guests, offering spectacular views of the sea and Spinalonga island.
