

MYKONOS THEOXENIA

EST. 1960

A reimagined landmark hotel, Mykonos Theoxenia surprises with elevated aesthetics grounded in its classic Greek soul. Its colors resonate with the natural landscape, soft textures, organic linens and sculptural shapes contribute to a luminous and welcome atmosphere.

Built in 1960, Mykonos Theoxenia is a fully renovated Myconian landmark building, protected by the Greek Ministry of Culture and member of the Design Hotels.

Surrounded by vast nature, facing the Aegean blue, its 12 suites and 37 elegant rooms, with sea or garden views, all provide the warm feeling of being at home.

Enjoy yoga, tai-chi or meditation in one of the secluded terraces and patios at sunrise or sunset or schedule a private cruise and trip through history at Delos island and the unspoiled beaches of Rineia for a heavenly swim.

For the foodies, gourmets and wine lovers, a delightful evening of wine-tasting could be arranged alongside a specially curated menu, highlighting premium Greek and international wines, combined with unforgettable tastes and fragrances.

